

TREATMENT RESOURCES AND INDIVIDUALIZED LIVING SUPPORTS CLIENT SPECIFIC WORKERS

T.R.A.I.L.S. is one of the many programs offered by New Directions for Children, Youth, Adults, and Families. T.R.A.I.L.S. is now accepting applications for Casual Client Specific Workers to work with children aged 10-17, who have a variety of challenges in their lives.

Successful applicants should have experience working with youth in the community, be nurturing, and have the ability to work independently and as part of a team. First Aid, C.P.R., and N.V.C.I. certification are required. Knowledge of the L.G.B.T.T. and the aboriginal community would be essential.

Job responsibilities include, but are not limited to; establishing a positive relationship with youth, engaging in recreational activities, participating in team meetings, and implementing treatment plans developed by Clinical Case Managers or Supervisors. Must be able to work evenings and weekends.

Salary range is $12.16 to $13.43 per hour. Salary is dependent on education and experience. The successful applicants will be subject to Criminal Record, Child Abuse Registry, and Prior Contact Checks. Please forward your resume and covering letter with 3 references:
